REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 61H, 1853.

TURPENTINE .- This article ruled unsteady during the first three days of the week ended to-day, and the price has advanced fully 40 cents $2280 lbs. on quotations of Thursday last. Since Monday the market has been steady, and sales quick at $4 for Virgin and yellow dip. The sales of the week foot up 3,109 bbls. as follows:

Bbls. Virgin and Yellow dip. Thursday 378 $3 60 Friday...... 935......... 3 60.......... Saturday 318............. 3 75........... Monday 525 4 00 Wednesday .. 816...... 4 00..... Thursday.... 4 00......

The market opened firm this morning at $4, and there continues to be a good demand from both shippers and distillers. There is none offering on market that we know of. SPIRITS TURPENTINE .- There has been considerable animation in this article since our last review, and prices have advanced a shade on quotation of last Thursday. The sales of the week reach 4,280 bbls., viz: Thursday . . . 1,000 bbls. at 55 cents; 100 do. p. n. t 55, 56, 561, 57 @ 60 cts. #gallon. Monday 850 " 57 @ 60 cents @ gallon. Tuesday 700 " 60 cents Wednesday.. 100 " 65 " (bb's. included.) 60 " F gailon.

The market at the close yesterday was firm at 60 cents .-There has been nothing done this morning up to the time of closing our enquiries, and market quiet. There is but a light stock in first hands, and holders are firm in asking 60 cents & gallon. We learn that there are few or no orders Rosin.-In the Common article the transactions since last review are as follows: Friday, 600 bbls. at 95 cents for small size; Monday, 10,000 do., and Tuesday, 200 do. at $1 15 for large size bbis.; and holders refusing to sell now at latter figerate stock on market. On Friday, 200 bils. No. 2 sold at $1 371 7 bbl. TAR .-- The receipts and sales of Tar this week reach 614

bbls. at $2 50 @ $2 60 @ bbl.; last sale at lowest figures, at which it seems to be in moderate demand. BEEF CATTLE .- The supply in butchers' hands is light, and good article of grass fatted is in demand at $5 $100 lbs. CORN MEAL. - Fair supply in store, and limited demand cells at 75 @ 80 cents & bushel, as in quantity. Corron-Comes in very slowly, and we note the receipt since last review of only 10 bales fair quality new crop, which weighs about 175 lbs. They were bought from Mr. James sold at 10 cents & ib ; there is a fair enquiry for the article, EMPTY BARRELS-Are in moderate supply, and sell from wharf at $2 40@$2 50 cash, for second hand and new. FEATHERS-Remain without change, and sell from store at 42@43 cents 2 lb., as in quantity and quality. Fish -Mullets are in fair demand, and receipts light. ot of 50 bbls. received last Monday sold at $5 621 19 bbl. from vessel; sell from store at $6 3746 36 50 7 bbl

FLOUR .- We have little or no change to note in Northern brands, and there is a fair supply in store, (with the exception of Baltimore,) which sells at quotations, as in quantity Last sale on Tuesday last of 170 bbls (made to a dealer) fine-at which the market is firm, with a fair demand. Selling by the single bbl. at $6 75 @ $7 for superfine. GRAIN. - We have no receipts of COEN to note for the past week, and we refer to our table for price of last sale. The supply in store is fully sufficient for the season and demand rather limited - RICE .- Is in moderate supply, and sells to retailers at 41 @ 41 cents P fb. for clean . - PEAS .-No sales to note, and supply in store sufficient for the demand. HAY.-Received this week only 74 bales Eastern make, which sold at auction on Monday at extremes ranging from 85 cents to $1.00 fbs. There is a good supply, and market extremely dull—no demand.

Lime—1100 casks received yesterday, but none sold at the time of making up our review this morning. Former arrivals sell from store at $1 25 @ $1 50 @ cask, as in quantity. LIQUORS-Supply in store fair, and sells at quotations, in lots as wanted. LUMBER-River-We know of no receipts since last review.

Molasses-Cuba sells from store at 23@25 cents & gallon, by the single hhd., as in quality. POTATOES-The price of Sweet Potatoes continues high. and receipts light; sell from boats and carts at 80@90 cents Irish Potatoes are in light supply, and sell from store at $2 75@$3 7 bbl. Provisions-We have little or no change in the Bacon market this week. There is a good supply of N. C. make in store, and sales small and extremely dull at 12@13 cents for hams, 9@10 cents for middlings, and 10@11 cents $\mathcal{P}$ 15 for hog round-with but a very light demand. Western make is also dull, and stock light. For store prices, by the hhd., see table.——LARD—The supply of N. C. make is very light, and a fair demand exists. One small lot received a day or two since, which sold from wagon at 13 cents 2 fb. in bbls. There is a moderate stock of Western in store, and small sales at 121 in bbls., and 13 cents # 15. in kegs .-GENTLEMEN! Call at SCOTT & BALDWIN'S, and BUTTER—Is in fair supply, and prices vary as to quality.—

See their beautiful Bordered, Hem-Stitch and Figured See table for store rates of Northern——PORK—Is in good supply, and we note sales in the small way at $17 50@$18 @ bbl. for Northern mess. POULTRY-The market continues to be poorly supplied, and prices rule high. See table SALT-Since our last week's review, we note the receipt coastwise of about 2,100 sacks, 300 of which sold on Friday at $1 425, and 1300 on Wednesday at $1 40 $ sack-both at 90 days. SHINGLES-Small sales during the week at $2 50 @ M. for Common Cypress.

STAVES—No sales to note in this article. TIMBER-The sales since our last review reach only 10 @

12 rafts at extremes ranging within classified figures. See FREIGHTS-Rates to New York have advanced a shade or repirits turpentine since last review. The amount of barrel freights offering coastwise has been considerably reduced by the recent large number of wessels that have arrived. There s, however, a sufficient quantity offering for the vessels flow
